

2008 AUSTRALIAN JUNIOR CHESS CHAMPIONSHIPS

Cranbrook School, Sydney
Bulletin 11 – 29th January, 2008
Editors: Heather Huddleston & Michael Lip

It is important at the end of the day to reiterate what Ian Rogers said at the Opening Ceremony. It is not important if you win or lose, it is about having fun – “at the end of the day, chess is only a game”. No matter what results you achieved during the two weeks – whether they were good or bad, we hope you enjoyed yourselves playing chess and sightseeing in the best city in the World!

This final bulletin instalment is a rather large issue (mainly because we don't have to photocopy and staple 200 copies!). We hope you enjoyed reading the daily bulletins as much as we enjoyed producing them.

Jumping Junta!

Just when you thought the bulletin titles could not get any lamer, Michael continues to impress. Junta Ikeda won his final round game against Samuel Dalton to finish on 10.5/11 – the highest score since David Smerdon (now an International Master) achieved the same result in Hervey Bay, 1999. Junta dominated the tournament, finishing two whole points ahead of his nearest competitors. Junta was undefeated on his way to winning three tournaments (lightning and rapid play included), with his only draw in the main competition coming in the fourth round with Eugene Schon – when he was completely losing in the final position!

The main focus for the final round was on the chasing pack, as those results would determine the Under 16 and Under 14 age titles. Gene Nakauchi won his game against fellow Queenslander Sammy Grigg quite easily and then faced a nervous wait to see if a playoff would be required to determine the Under 16 Champion. Fedja Zulfic needed to defeat Andrew Brown to force a playoff with Gene and managed to do this after a hard-fought endgame.

The playoff for the Under 16 title between Gene and Fedja, the only two participants on 8.5/11, needed five games to determine a winner. The final Armageddon* tie break was required after both the rapid and lightning playoff rounds finished 1–1. Gene won the Armageddon playoff with the black pieces, despite the time disadvantage, to claim the Under 16 title.

* Armageddon Playoff Procedure:
“If the tie is still not resolved a single game shall be played in which White has 5 minutes and Black 4 minutes for the whole game, a draw for Black being regarded as a win. Colours for this game shall be drawn by lot.” – ACF by-laws

Gene's victory in the playoff handed the Under 14 title to ACT's Yi Yuan. Yi easily defeated Eugene Schon in their round eleven encounter and then faced an anxious wait while Gene's playoff took place. Had Gene lost, Gene would have taken the Under 14 title instead, pushing Yi back into 2nd place Under 14.

Dancing Deborah!

The titles just get worse and worse! In a bit of an anticlimax, Deborah Ng swapped off most of the pieces and played a quick 24-move draw with Charmian Zhang to give her the Under 18 title. This result confirmed Sally Yu as the Under 16 champion despite stopping Shan-Shan Qiao's recent string of victories. It was Sally's third Under 16 Girls title in a row – an amazing achievement, especially considering that she is still eligible for the Under 14 title!

Third-seeded Deborah played consistent, solid chess over the two weeks, only losing the one game – a third round loss to Sally. A fantastic nine-game winning streak in the middle of the tournament after that loss gave Deborah the luxury of only requiring a draw in the final round.

Megan Setiabudi benefited from Sally's strong performance in the tournament to claim the Under 14 title. Megan held a half point lead over her nearest challengers heading into the final round and a win against Miranda Webb-Liddle would be enough to keep them at bay. She managed the victory and even stretched her victory margin to a full point after her nearest challengers drew their final round games.

The Under 18 Girls should be congratulated for their efforts over the two weeks. Instead of the normal 11-round swiss tournament, the girls played a gruelling 13-round, round-robin tournament with a couple of double round days. The extra rounds, combined with their games being the last to finish on most days, tested their endurance as well as their chess ability.

Majestic Matheson!

Thanks must go to Microsoft Word thesaurus for this title. Laurence Matheson's 26-move draw with Harry Ruan ensured Laurence won the Under 12 title without the need for a playoff. Laurence dominated the tournament from start to finish and was the most consistent performer by far in the Under 12 Open. He was undefeated in the tournament, only conceding three draws. Yi Liu, Laurence's nearest rival, won his final round game against Pasan Perera to secure second place in the tournament, half a point behind Laurence.

Harry's final round draw with Laurence gave Anurag Sannidhanam and Michael Chan the chance to force a playoff with Harry for the Under 10 title if either could manage to win their final round. Anurag managed to win, but Michael could only draw meaning that a playoff would be required to split Harry and Anurag – the Under 10 Rapid Play Champion. The first rapid playoff match finished as a draw, but Harry defeated Anurag in the second rapid game to win the playoff and the title 1½–½.

A playoff was also required to determine the Under 8 champion. Peter Wallmueller held a one point lead in the race for the title over Anton Smirnov and Daniel Yuan, but had a difficult final round pairing with Cedric Koh. Peter's eventual loss to Cedric gave Anton or Daniel the chance to catch him. Anton defeated Ethan Derwent, but Daniel lost to Anand Gupte leaving Peter and Anton to playoff for the Under 8 title.

The playoff was a fascinating encounter with the game quality belittling their young age. The first game was a great tussle throughout – all the way to the drawn rook ending. Both players played excellent moves despite the rapid play time control. The final game was decided by an unfortunate mistake. Anton captured with the wrong piece, allowing a back-rank checkmate. If he had captured the other way, he would have been a piece up and the result could have been very different. Peter pounced on the miscalculation, winning the playoff and the title 1½–½.

Leaping Leteisha!

OK, I promise to stop with the bad titles. I am beginning to sound more and more like our beloved Chief Arbiter! Leteisha Simmonds won her final round game against Joanne Mason to win the Under 12 Girls title. Abbie Kanagarajah also won to finish half a point behind Leteisha. The two leaders won their final five games in the tournament, pushing each other all the way to the end!

Leteisha's only dropped point in the tournament was a loss to Abbie in round five. Abbie then suffered an unfortunate setback in round six when she lost to Jenny Yum in a winning position. This gave Leteisha a half point advantage which she never relinquished.

The eventual winner of the Under 10 Girls Championship was less clear-cut. Five players had the chance to win the title! Grace Alvares had pole position on 5.5/10, half a point ahead of a chasing group of four players, but also had one of the more difficult final round pairings against third-placed Clarise Koh. Katherine McGregor, one of the girls in the chasing group, received the final round bye to move to 6/11, so Grace would have to win to claim the title or draw to force a playoff. Clarise proved too strong for Grace in the end, so it was up to the three remaining players on 5/10 to see if they could catch Katherine on 6 points. Helen Pretorius and Maria Ditu, two of the Under 10 title contenders on 5 points, lost to their older opponents, but Kashish Christian, the final player able to catch Katherine, won her final round game to force yet another playoff!

After another close playoff battle where the rapid and lightning playoff games finished 1–1, we saw another Armageddon tie breaker, this time between Katherine and Kashish. Kashish had the luxury of being assured of at least the Under 8 Girls title, even if she lost the playoff. Kashish, however, was not willing to settle for the Under 8 Girls title and played with an amazing amount of poise, in the end winning the final Armageddon playoff on time.

Kashish's victory in the Under 10 title race saw Charlie-Rose MacLennan take out the Under 8 title with some very strong play, scoring 3/11 in the tournament.

Bulletin Awards

The following awards are presented by the bulletin staff. Unfortunately no prizes are available due to budgetary restraints and general disorganisation, but your names will be etched into history forever nonetheless.

Neatest Scoresheets – Bulletin Editor's Favourites!

The following players write scoresheets with such grace and precision that we wish they could notate every game in the tournament! Thank you for making our lives much easier.

1st Place:

1. Under 18 Open – Michael Gearing (QLD)
2. Under 18 Girls – Shan-Shan Qiao (NSW)*
3. Under 12 Open – Isaac Ng (VIC)
4. Under 12 Girls – Caroline Shan (NSW)

Honourable Mentions:

1. Under 18 Open – Joseph Nguyen (NSW)
2. Under 18 Girls – Winnie Yum (QLD)*
3. Under 12 Open – Pasan Perera (NSW)
4. Under 12 Girls – Alannah Byrne (QLD)

* The Under 18 Girls division was the hardest to judge. Winnie had extraordinarily neat and accurate scoresheets, but Shan-Shan used liquid paper to correct her mistakes and that attention to detail got her over the line in the end.

Longest Game with Legible Scoresheets

1. 110 moves – Robin Wei and Samuel Dalton (round 7)
2. 107 moves – Robin Wei and Benjamin Encel (round 11)
3. 101 moves – Thibault De Villenoisy and Joshua Stevens (round 6)

Robin attempted to beat his round 7 effort in his final round game, but could only manage to reach 107 moves against Benjamin Encel before resigning. Had he kept going, Robin would have easily eclipsed the 110-move game he played in round 7. The three games listed above were the only “three-scoresheet games” in the tournament. William Xu retains his title for another year.

Shortest Game without Forfeits

1. 7 moves – Christian Nabung and Max Thornley (round 4)
2. 9 moves – Dominic Nguyen and Nicholas Leung (round 11)
3. 10 moves – Jonathan Yuen and Chris Boni (round 4)
4. 10 moves – Heath Dunsford and Vincent Chen (round 10)

In the four “10 moves or less” games, there was only one “Grandmaster Draw”. GM Dominic Nguyen and GM Nicholas Leung’s final round 9-move draw unfortunately did not see them take the award away from Christian Nabung’s opening trick win in round 4. As a testament to the fighting chess displayed by all competitors throughout the tournament, there were only 3 sub-20 move draws – all in the final round.

Most Shocking Performance ... in a Good Way

The following players performed much better than their initial seeding would have indicated, surprising many with some shock results.

1st Place:

1. Under 18 Open – Fedja Zulfic (SA)

Seed 13 in the tournament is unlucky for some, but not for Mr Zulfic. 8.5/11 and =2nd place overall saw him playoff for the Under 16 title, where he unfortunately lost in the final ‘Armageddon’ tie break. Despite this, Fedja should still be proud of his excellent performance over the two weeks, taking home the Under 18 2nd place trophy for his efforts.

2. Under 18 Girls – Amy Brown (WA)

The only unrated player in the tournament played excellent chess throughout the two weeks, even having a hand in deciding the eventual tournament winner. 7/13 is a fantastic score and was good enough to win the trophy for 2nd Under 14. Amy’s solid play throughout the tournament should see her receive a rating very shortly and it will be high.

3. Under 12 Open – Peter Wallmueller (VIC)

The unrated Peter won the Under 8 title this year in a playoff. What was impressive during his victory was his comeback in the second half of the tournament. Peter won a total of 4.5/5 from rounds 6 to 10 never giving up and growing in confidence from round-to-round.

4. Under 12 Girls – Kashish Christian (NSW)

Kashish was one of two Under 8 players in the Girls Under 12 tournament and scored an excellent 6/11 against much older opposition. Kashish actually managed to win a higher age group award, the Under 10 title in a playoff! Kashish performed superbly during the tournament and thoroughly deserved her results and her multiple trophies.

Honourable Mentions:

1. Under 18 Open – Robin Wei (QLD)
2. Under 18 Girls – Charmian Zhang (NSW)
3. Under 12 Open – Bernard Chau (NSW)
4. Under 12 Girls – Joanne Mason (ACT)

“I have excess luggage ... I won too many trophies”

The following players had an extremely successful two weeks winning trophies in all four competitions and may have difficulties with oversized luggage at the airport on the way home.

There is a joke going around that Junta is able to start his own metal refinery after his victories in the tournament. We are unable to confirm or deny the rumour at this stage...

Congratulations to Sally Yu and Kashish Christian who took home trophies for 1st place in every tournament!

Thank You!

Tournaments with 168 players can only be run with the tireless help of a great deal of people. There are many people who deserve our thanks:

- Tournament Director Richard Gastineau-Hills

Richard worked tirelessly from start to finish for the tournament, submitting the initial bid to the ACF and being the last person out the door at the end of the tournament. Some of his other (just as important) tasks included assistant arbiter, T-shirt vendor, bulletin proof-reader, after hours canteen liaison, keeper of the chess sets and most importantly, writer of the cheques at the end of the tournament!

- Organiser Bonnie Wu

Bonnie performed many of the duties which made the tournament run more smoothly. From overseeing the initial layout of coaching rooms to printing out name labels and signs, Bonnie had a hand in nearly everything to do with the tournament – apart from actually playing chess!

- Chief Arbiter Charles Zworestine, Arbiters Roland Eime, Brian Allison and Assistant Arbiter Jenny Charomova

The arbiters are responsible for ensuring that tournaments run smoothly and for making rounds start 5-10 minutes late after readings from “The Book of FIDE”. Charles, Roland, Brian and Eugenia all performed their duties exceedingly well and deserve our thanks!

- Problem Solving Championship organisers Geoff Foster, Dennis Hale and Ian Shanahan

Without the help of these three men, the problem solving championships would not have taken place. Their problems were both challenging and enjoyable, too challenging for a particular bulletin editor and the chief arbiter...

- Entry processor Eunice Koh

Eunice made sure that all entries to the tournament were taken in a prompt manner, answering all sorts of enquiries and reading all sorts of handwriting on entry forms – not an easy task for a tournament with 168 players! Thanks Eunice!

- Scorers at the front desk Shun Ikeda, Jenni Oliver, Agus Setiabudi, Frank Derwent, Mirabelle Guo and Jenny Mason

The scorers gave up their time to make the organiser’s life much easier. They showed compassion at all times and ensured the tournament ran smoothly when no arbiter was in sight!

- Bulletin helpers during the tournament: Junta Ikeda, Deborah Ng, Shan-Shan Qiao, Gareth Oliver, Charmian Zhang, Stephanie Leung, Penelope Hoey, Ronald Yu, Shervin Rafizadeh, Ronald Scott, Sarah Anton, Anthony To, Louis Chu, Jonathan Szeto, Edwin Wu, Jonas Muller, Kevin Tan, Sammy Grigg, Andrew Brown, Emma Guo, John Papantoniou, Bernard Chau, Callum McCrow, Mrs Shang, Mrs Ng, Mr Wan, Mrs Cheung and Mr Siow-Lee

These people worked very hard in the bulletin room (some harder than others, right Shervin?) during the two weeks to prepare the bulletins you received at the end of your games. Whether it was deciphering the hieroglyphics on certain problem scoresheets, stapling and photocopying the bulletin or providing entertainment to other bulletin helpers, their help was greatly appreciated.

- Canteen helpers during the tournament: Bonnie Wu (canteen coordinator); Winnie Chau, Janet Dunbabin, Linda Wu (team leaders); Cherry Chen, Esther Cheung, Tracy Cowell, John Gu, Mengyi He, Shelley Hong, Tina Huddleston, Eliza MacLennan, Theresa Nguyen, Danny Pan, Peter Papp, Vin Rebulado, Jin Shan, Grace Shang, Weng Sisu (all canteen helpers); Helen Tan (T-shirt selling during the tournament); Winnie Wong (catering for opening and closing ceremonies); and another helper, who played a major role, wishes to remain anonymous. There were other canteen helpers too, whose names we didn't record – apologies if your name has been omitted.

The real heroes of the tournament were the courageous men and women serving at the canteen who held off the massive stampedes of kids to make sure we all had a chance to be fed.

- John Gu for lending five computers to the bulletin staff for entering games.
- Dr Nigel Nettheim, Bob Meadley and an anonymous person who donated extra money for the problem solving championships.
- The A-Teens, Matchbox Twenty and Spice Girls
These bands provided the inspiration for multiple bulletins, some songs were even played time after time after time after time on repeat... yes, just the one song on repeat over and over and over again.

A number of organisations should also be thanked for their support of the event:

- The New South Wales Junior Chess League (NSWJCL) for financially supporting the event.
- The New South Wales Chess Association (NSWCA), North Sydney Leagues Club Chess Club, Manly Leagues Club Chess Club and Australian Chess Federation (ACF) for lending equipment for the duration of the tournament.
- The Australian Academy of Commerce for their generous sponsorship towards the event.
- Cranbrook School for use of their fabulous venue, in particular, Mark O’Hara, the facilities manager at Cranbrook.

2008 Australian Junior Champion Speech

The following is a copy of Junta Ikeda's Closing Ceremony speech and some words of encouragement for juniors playing in this year's tournament. Junta is still as photogenic as ever!

"Firstly, thanks again to Richard Gastineau-Hills and the NSWJCL for successfully organising this tournament, and the arbiters, Charles Zwoestine, Roland Eime and Brian Allison. Thanks to all the parents who helped in the canteen, at the scoring table, everyone who helped enter games throughout the course of the tournament, the bulletin editors, Heather Huddleston and Michael Lip, Michael also for being the webmaster. Thanks to the people who composed problems for the problem solving event, and all the people who helped in the main event and three side events. I'd like to also thanks to my family for their support over the years, and especially my dad for his support over these few weeks, my coach Andras Toth, and Igor Bjelobrk and Ingela Eriksson for letting me stay at their place throughout the tournament.

Thanks to Cranbrook School for providing us with a great venue. 6 years ago, when I was still 10 years old, I participated in my first Australian Juniors (U/12) at the same school, which I think would have been my very first interstate tournament. I remember how I was nervous and excited at the same time, but I have played in every Juniors after that and built up some experience.

Back at the start of 2002, my rating was only 639, and there were much less players over 1000 in the U/12 section than now, so I'm happy that the level of young players has improved. I think it was after that tournament that I started working really hard on chess, because I realised that there were so many better junior players than me and I wanted to really improve my chess. In the next ACF rating list, I went up to 901, then 1138, and then to 1400, making me one of the favourites for the 2003 U/12 Open.

Chess is different from sports such as soccer or basketball because it is a single player sport, and the results really come back at you quickly, which improves your self responsibility, control and discipline. For example, if you haven't worked on chess for quite a while, you're not going to feel as confident in your game and won't have the full motivation, whereas if you regularly play serious games, receive good coaching, play through games from a book or analyse your own games, there's always room for improvement and you keep wanting to improve to the next level and achieve a higher rating in the next list.

To the juniors, I believe the best way to improve your chess is not to study pages and pages of opening theory or simply read various chess books, but to analyse your own games in detail, try and figure out what your strengths and weaknesses are, think about how you can improve, and if reading books with famous games in it, not just looking at the diagrams but go through the games on a board, comparing the moves in the games with the moves you might have played if you were in the players' position.

To the parents, thank you for supporting your children's chess, as it takes a lot of time, money, patience, stress and effort to do this, but please don't pressure them negatively, or talk to them or treat them angrily after they lose, as that can only have a negative effect on their play. Younger juniors, who are only starting to gain independence, tend to play games better when thinking of how a win would make them happy, rather than thinking about what might happen after their game if they lose. Also, an important thing to remember is that you can always learn a few things from every game you lose, but just regretting playing a losing move won't help your chess at all.

I was happy to win this year's Australian Juniors, as I was very confident and relaxed at the same time that I could win. I was also top seed at last years Juniors in Canberra, but I don't think I was ready to become the champion then, as I felt the pressure stacked on me and I didn't take the tournament game by game, move by move. Reflecting the 6 years from the 2002 Juniors to this year's, I've always tried to stay positive towards my chess and I think the hard work has paid off. I hope Andrew Brown or Yi Yuan can win the next year's Australian Juniors, making it three years in a row for the ACT. A thing about long chess tournaments is that you tend to miss out on exercise, so although the weather was bad in the first half of this tournament, it recovered in the second half and we got to play some soccer like the previous years, which was good. I hope that tradition goes on in the Juniors from next year as well.

This year I missed some things out in the speech at the closing ceremony, and thanks to the generosity of the bulletin editor, I was able to write this up to make up for it, but I think it would be interesting to have the champion write something for the final bulletin every year from now on. Finally, thanks to all the players who participated in all the events and I hope you all have fun in future Australian Junior Championships."
